

DESIGNWORKS COLLECTIVE

Sustainability Initiatives

Ecologi

Designworks Collective is a creative group of people driven by imaginative ideas and a passion for designing and sharing great products. We continuously reassess how we can be better stewards, striving to cultivate a business that is both responsible and meaningful. We're committed to reducing our environmental footprint, while remaining resolute in our efforts to support you and our community! This journey is ongoing and constantly evolving.

Safe Water

Partnering with Ecologi has allowed us to help fund a project in Zambia that builds borehole hand pumps in communities with unsafe water that rely on wood to boil their water, which in turn reduces carbon emissions.

Tree Planting

As part of our carbon offsetting efforts, we partnered with Carbon Footprint to plant 200 trees at a primary school in Bath—giving back to the environment and our community.

Carbon Neutrality

In 2023, we completed a carbon assessment with Carbon Footprint and offset all our Scope 1 & 2 emissions. We're continuing this commitment and are now calculating our 2024 emissions to offset later this year.

Community Giveback

We have donated over £368,000, to our giveback partners, including the National Park Foundation, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, and Humane World for Animals, and over £22,500 to World Central Kitchen and the Humane Society US to support disaster relief efforts.

We appreciate your partnership - it allows us to support these missions that are so important to all of us.

here's how™

We created Here's How with a simple idea - to craft delicious cocktail (or mocktail) mixers with quality, fresh ingredients and offer ways to serve them in style.

By crafting a culture designed around effortless mixing, our mission is to enhance the social experience and cultivate joy and connection in the process.

Our journey is also about giving back. At Here's How, we are committed to ensuring a better life for animals across the globe. That's why we proudly support Humane Society International. All of our products are named after our own furry friends, honoring their positive impact on our lives.

Welcome to modern mixology – created for living.

SIMPLY PAIR WITH SUGGESTED SPIRIT FOR A DELICIOUS COCKTAIL OR ENJOY AS A MOCKTAIL.
