

MILKHOUSE CANDLE CO.®

2023 Fall & Winter Wholesale Catalog

Our Story

Eric Sparrow and his wife, Janet, started the company from their kitchen table back in 2002 with a desire to use Iowa-grown soybeans to create a healthier alternative to the paraffin-based products commonly seen in the candle market.

Making quality products at Milkhouse has become our everyday focus while we strive to fill each home with clean-burning, all natural-wax candles. Making connections with our customers is our true bread and butter; that's what it's all about. We love spreading the Milkhouse cheer by bringing smiles to people's faces when they strike a match and light their candles! We're happy you're here on this journey with us!

Why choose Milkhouse Candles for your store?

The Milkhouse blend of waxes is simple: pure beeswax and natural soy wax from soybeans grown in America's Midwest that provide a safe and clean-burning alternative to paraffin candles. We take pride in creating amazing products that give a fragrance experience like none other. No dyes. Cotton wicks. Premium fragrances. Pure goodness.

Most importantly, as a wholesale partner with Milkhouse, you can expect:

- Quality products
- Excellent customer service
- Speedy fulfillment time
- Customers that keep coming back for more!
