PADDYWAX gives back

At DesignWorks Collective the chemistry and collaboration of our team is what drives us. We are passionate about the product we design and we are equally passionate about our people and our community. We believe in not just “making products” but creating products that fit a need and fill a void. We aim to design, package and produce our candles, stationery, coffee, gifts and grooming lines with an overreaching goal to be thoughtful to our environment and minimal with our footprint.

In 2020, we completed a solar panel installation on our office building and added a solar carport. Together this offsets over 30% of our energy usage in our space. We are planning for a 500 KW solar array on our manufacturing facility in 2022 to additionally reduce our electric grid usage. Our environment is challenged, and we all feel that we must do our part to be good stewards.

St Jude idea: colorful hopeful candle collection ☺

continue donation to parks*

Over the last five years we've partnered with the National Park Foundation to highlight and give back to our country's outstanding park system. During this time, we have donated over $188,000 to the foundation. As a company we've also donated our time and resources to our local food bank, Second Harvest – which provides food to children and families facing hunger in Tennessee. Most recently, we've partnered with St. Jude Children's Hospital. With this collection we hope to donate $25,000 this year to this amazing hospital.

We've been blessed and we believe we can make a difference. There's an obligation to invest in our people, our community and in our planet.

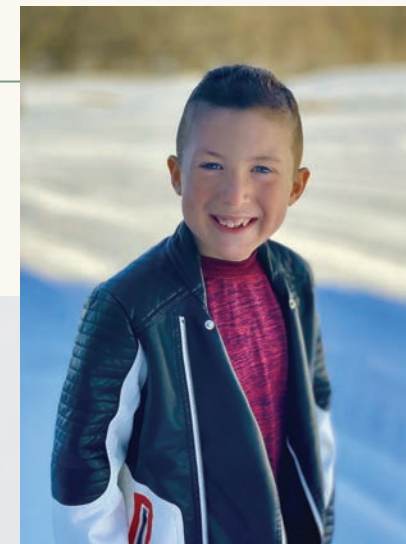

Your friend and retail partner,
Joe Moore

NEW GIVE BACK PROGRAM!

in partnership with

ST. JUDE CHILDREN'S RESEARCH HOSPITAL®

St. Jude is leading the way the world understands, treats and defeats childhood cancer and other life-threatening diseases. Did you know that St. Jude shares the discoveries it makes, which means doctors and scientists worldwide can use that knowledge to save thousands more children? This cause is truly near and dear to our hearts, with the hospital being in our home state of Tennessee. We are happy to announce that we have committed to donate 5% of each candle purchase to St. Jude Children's Hospital® in an effort to help them continue their mission: Finding cures. Saving children.®

clayton

9-years-old • Tennessee, USA

acute lymphoblastic leukemia b-cell hypodiploid

In the fall of 2018, Clayton was living the life of a typical first grader. He had perfect attendance at school. In fact, he was so proud of never being absent that he was hesitant to tell his parents that one day he wasn't feeling well.

Doctors at St. Jude diagnosed Clayton with acute lymphoblastic leukemia, b-cell, hypodiploid, a rare form of the disease. Clayton persevered through his treatment, which included CAR T-cell therapy, a tactic that involves engineering a patient's disease-fighting T-cells to home in on cancer cells and destroy them.

"St. Jude takes the worry away. When you walk into the hospital, you truly understand what hope really means. Being here is just so hopeful, we have a lot of hope."

The family appreciates all of the St. Jude staff team members whom played a part in Clayton's recovery.

While in treatment, Clayton illustrated a piece of artwork that featured rainbows. For this and many reasons, this candle is inspired by him.

15-years-old • Puerto Rico

acute lymphoblastic leukemia

Yamila was just three-years-old when she was diagnosed with cancer and began treatment in Puerto Rico, where her family lives. When the cancer returned at age six, she was referred to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital® in Tennessee.

There, she underwent a bone marrow transplant, with her brother serving as her donor. When Yamila relapsed a second time, her continuing treatment at St. Jude included chemotherapy and a second bone marrow transplant.

According to her mother, one of Yamila's biggest challenges outside of treatment was learning how to do something by herself. A bicycle became the instrument that helped her become independent and say, "I can do this; this is my goal and I'm going to accomplish it." Ten years after a long series of cancer treatments began, Yamila continues to lead a life full of joy.

While in treatment, Yamila illustrated a piece of artwork that featured sparkles. For this and many reasons, this candle is inspired by her.

chase

17-years-old • Louisiana, USA

When asked about what he remembered most about his care and treatment at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, Chase, like many teenagers, thought with his stomach. "He loved all of the different options at Kay Kafe," his mom said with a smile.

In addition to the cafeteria that serves patients and their families from all across the world at no cost to them, Chase recalled how "super nice" everyone was whom he and his family interacted with at St. Jude.

Chase is eager to pay such kindness forward in the years to come and he has already begun doing so by participating in a St. Jude patient study.

Today, Chase is doing great. His mom tells us he just got his first job, became an uncle, and still enjoys drawing. "Right now Chase is just living for today."

While in treatment, Chase illustrated a piece of artwork that featured smiley faces. For this and many reasons, this candle is inspired by him.

10-years-old • Nicaragua

acute myeloid leukemia

Camila was 5 years old in 2015 when she was diagnosed with acute myeloid leukemia. After undergoing months of treatment in Nicaragua, her cancer did not go into remission. Out of options in their home country, Camila's family turned to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital®. Families never receive a bill from St. Jude for treatment, travel, housing or food – because all a family should worry about is helping their child live.

Camila's treatment included chemotherapy and a bone marrow transplant. She returned home in 2016, but a year later, tests showed the cancer was back. Camila's continuing treatment at St. Jude has included chemotherapy and a second bone marrow transplant.

"St. Jude is like heaven on earth," said Camila's mom. "It's the greatest place."

While in treatment, Camila illustrated a piece of artwork that featured flowers. For this and many reasons, this candle is inspired by her.

victoria

14-years-old • Florida, USA

suprasellar atypical meningioma/brain tumor

In 2015, Victoria's family learned she had a rare brain tumor called a suprasellar atypical meningioma. They were referred to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital®, where Victoria's treatment included proton therapy.

Victoria now visits St. Jude for regular checkups. "St. Jude gave us back hope," said Victoria's mom.

When Victoria grows up, she wants to be a doctor at St. Jude. In the meantime, Victoria is using her skills as an artist to help give back to St. Jude, often donating her artwork to raise funds and awareness for St. Jude.

While in treatment, Victoria illustrated a piece of artwork that featured hearts. For this and many reasons, this candle is inspired by her.

CANDLE ACCESSORIES

Insider tips: Trim your wicks to 1/4" before each lighting for an even and clean burn. Once the wax has pooled to the edges of the vessel, extinguish your wick with our candle snuffer.
